

Dear All,

Please join me in welcoming Anshuman Panigrahi, Ritu Mohapatra and Manas Ranjan Swain to the chapter's Editorial Board. Anshuman will be the Editor-in-Chief. His true talent is creativity apart from many other long list of talents. Ritu will focus on Odiya articles. Those of you who do not know, she is an OAS lost to USA. Her Odiya literature talent is superior. Manas has a great attitude towards novel work. Their primary objective is to collect articles, paintings, drawings from the chapter members and their children to publish a high quality Aama Aaina in print and digital editions at Kumar Purnima event. In addition, they will find ways to publish monthly newsletters and reports after each event.

We are looking for high schoolers who can assist with the newsletter and after event report. Please sign up at https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSc9NIG0EfgFqjyAxanb_3yziVifroG7tBei9bJCNVZbiTlqg/vie_wform. Current or past Journalism students would be ideal. This will be a great way to engage the youth!

Link to submission guidelines and electronic submission is <http://osanynj.odishasociety.org/magazine-submissions/>. No need to wait till October 2018 to submit You can submit articles even now – not too early.

This year, the magazine was published in Amazon CreateSpace.com in print edition, Kindle, Barnes & Nobel Book, Google Play, Google Book and Apple iBook. Free coupon code is available for Apple iBook – see <http://osanynj.odishasociety.org/2017-chapter-magazine/> to check out the links and to request for free coupon code.

Sincerely,

Sribatsa Das
